HALCYON DAYS

ESTABLISHED 1950

Quintessentially English for 75 years

For 75 Years HALCYON DAYS has championed English craftsmanship. Since becoming the sole reviver of the centuries-old artform of enamelling in 1970, HALCYON DAYS continues its legacy of traditional craft techniques. Using ancient processes which have been passed down through generations, each enamel box is handcrafted with care and pride by our expert artisans in the West Midlands – The beating heart of the British pottery industry. Our exquisite enamel boxes are of exceptional quality, and with a plethora of delicate and eye-catching designs, each box is a treasure. In a world of mass production, they are a truly unique and special gift, making memories to last a lifetime.

Ceiling of the Chapel Royal, St James's Palace Musical Box

D: 80mm H: 50mm

D: 3 5/32" H: 2"

Inspired by the decorative ceiling of the Chapel Royal, St. James's Palace, the ceiling is host to a wealth of history. Hans Holbein was commissioned by Henry VIII to decorate the chapel and details of the ceiling were copied from the ambulatory vault of S. Costanza, Rome, with the illustrative painting attributed to Italian craftsmen, commemorating the marriage of Henry VIII & Anne of Cleves.

'I only ever wanted to see my portrait of Her Majesty displayed on a wall, but I had to make an exception for Halcyon Days as the box is a treasure!'
-Julian Calder

This box features Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II as photographed by Julian Calder in 2010 against the dramatic scenery on the grounds of Balmoral Castle, Her beloved Scottish residence.

Here, Her Majesty is presented as Sovereign of the Most Ancient and Most Noble Order of the Thistle, the senior Order of Chivalry awarded in Scotland: wearing the mantle of the Sovereign of The Order of the Thistle showing the Star of the Order on the shoulder, together with the Thistle Collar composed of jewelled thistles and rue, the pendant badge of St Andrew, and the Vladimir tiara with emeralds while holding the hat worn by members of the Order. The Order of the Thistle dates from the 17th century and honours individuals who have contributed significantly to national life.

The stunning hand-painted enamel box is finished with a deep green enamel base and purple leather lining. It is limited to an edition of 200.

'The Spirit of Britain'

Winston Churchill delivered this speech on the War Situation to the House of Commons on 4th June 1940. Churchill's words were circulated on postcards, over the radio and in the national press to galvanise the determination and resilience of the British people during the Second World War.
