refined design. sustainable materials. luxury living.

At the core, Mariposa is committed to refined design, crafted from sustainable materials—one at a time. While we've grown over the last 45 years, we're still a small company with a big heart.

We're also luxury obsessed. From sophisticated enameled frames that add modern elegance to timeless classics, to glassware and entertaining essentials that fill your life with memories, we've curated a suite that elevates every occasion.

Beyond that? Innovation—once again. Our latest additions offer a fresh new chapter in elevated entertaining. Colored acrylic lets you create your own style—mixing, matching, and bringing a modern edge that lets you transform everyday moments into something extraordinary.

True luxury comes from doing what you love.
